Embodiment Video

Embodiment video recording :

We are looking for your presence, your unique and individual style. Be mindful of presentation and having good lighting and sound.

The video presentation should not exceed 15 minutes in TOTAL length.

Format: If attaching a link to a video platform such as YouTube, Vimeo, Google Drive or DropBox please be sure to set your video to "private" or "only those with the link may view" for your privacy. You may also upload a .mp4, .mov, or other video files if filling this form out on the web.

Video Components:

- Introduction (3-5 minutes):
Name, where you are from?
Why do you dance?
Why are you called to teach?
- Teach an intentional movement sequence (3 - 5 minutes) ie: A sequence on being grounded and centered.
- Complete the embodiment video by dancing to a song that supports the teaching (3 - 5 minutes).
Find a way to end well.

Music Playlist

Musical compilation and skill level check:

Create one playlist with a 30 - 40 minute progression of intentional music. Choose music that inspires you and inspires movement. The musical journey should have a beginning, middle, and end, and should support a specific movement intention for an embodiment practice.

This can be submitted as a Spotify Playlist or a recorded mix from Traktor Pro.

Submission Components:

Give the playlist a title that reflects the intention.

If you are uploading an audio file, please upload a list of the track names and artists utilized in your set.

Upload Audio File From Traktor:

If you uploaded an audio file, please include the list of track names and artists here:

Application Check List: *

- I am up to date with my core curriculum
- I have completed all written answers.
- I have submitted my embodiment video.
- I have submitted my music playlist.
- I have submitted payment for the non-refundable application fee.

Only after we receive all of your materials;
written application, video submission, music playlist, and application fee,
will your application be complete.

With the amount of attention we are asking you to take with this process,
we are taking the same with reviewing your application.
Please be patient with our response.
